

QUICK WRITE - Science

At the beginning of class spend no more than 5 minutes and answer these questions in your composition book. Answer each question on a different page. At the top of the page, put the date and the question number: Ex. 8/25/10 #1. Return your composition book to the designated place.

8/30/2010

1. Imagine you are moving to a foreign country and won't see your friends and family for many years. Write a letter to a friend or family member, explaining how you would have done certain things differently.

8/31/2010

2. Most people have vivid memories of certain events from childhood. What sticks out in your mind? Pick one strong memory and describe it in detail.

9/1/2010

3. When a special event (dance, family event, party, etc.) is on the horizon, people plan for it. Think of a special event you looked forward to and planned for that turned out different from how you thought. Write about what you expected and what actually happened.

9/2/2010

4. Below are some common phrases from Shakespearean plays. Choose one and explain what you think it means.
 - a. Apple of her eye
 - b. Eating me out of house and home
 - c. Good riddance
 - d. Green-eyed monster
 - e. All the world's a stage
 - f. To thine own self be true
 - g. Tower of strength
 - h. Wear my heart on my sleeve

9/3/2010

5. Some people play sports and detest it, because they're not as good as they want to be; others play and love it, because they are competitive and skilled. Some pay close attention to pro or local teams. Some attend games as serious fans; others attend because they like the social interaction in the stands. Some people loathe sports and think the people who play them and watch them are brainless jocks. Which group do you fall into? Explain why.