

QUICK WRITE - Science

At the beginning of class spend no more than 5 minutes and answer these questions in your composition book. Answer each question on a different page. At the top of the page, put the date and the question number: Ex. 8/25/10 #1. Return your composition book to the designated place.

9/13/2010

1. There are many firsts in our lives that we don't remember, such as our first tooth, first step, word, or birthday. Firsts from later in childhood come easily to mind: first pet, award, day of high school, summer at camp, first kiss. Write about a special first that you remember clearly.

9/14/2010

2. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. once said: "Everyone has the power for greatness, not fame, but greatness, because greatness is determined by service." Do you agree that everyone has the potential for greatness? Maybe you think serving others doesn't make someone great; if that is the case, what do you think are qualifying factors of greatness?

9/15/2010

3. Most families set rules for their children, especially regarding behavior and responsibility. Which rules do you find annoying? Do you long to stay out later, go out more, or dress any way you like? Write about the rules you consider most unfair.

9/16/2010

4. Life is full of embarrassing moments. When you're lying in awake at night, having trouble sleeping, do your most embarrassing blunders run through your mind? Write about some of these agonizing memories.

9/16/2010

5. Imagine you know nothing about science. As such a person, what do you think is at the center of the Earth? Come up with at least 2 theories.